New York, June 21.—Theodore Roose-yelt began Monday the life he has chosen for himself as a private citizen. The dispatch boat Dolphin, on which Mr. Roosevelt left Oyster Bay late Sunday night with secretary Meyer as his host, brought him into New York early Mon-day morning. He went direct to his offices and immediately plunged into the mountain of correspondence that has been accumulating for him. Two hours later he appeared on the street and was immediately recognized by the crowds. Before he had walked half a block westward toward Fifth avenue, he was followed by a throng that blocked the side walk. The colonel plunged for a hatters at a speed that made the crowd behind run to keep up. He got a straw hat and soon returned to his office.

VOLNEY BROWN NOT A CITY OFFICER

Volney M. Brown, known as assistant city attorney, is not an executive, judi-cial or legislative officer, despite the fact that he has been acting as such for many moons. Brown contents that he is, but judge McCord, of the criminal court of appeals at Austin, holds that he is not, for in reversing the verdict in the case of W. A. Naill and ordering a dismissal of the case, the judge holds that the city charter of El Paso does not provide for the appointment of an assistant city attorney, though it does admit of the appointment of a /deputy. Perhaps there is a distinction without a difference but the court held that the Naill case should be dismissed on this account and therefore on June 17 rendered the opinion at Austin which gives Naill his liberty. He has been released from the county jail, where he was held after being convicted and sentenced to serve two years on a charme of "offering a bribe to assistant city at-torney Volney M. Brown."
